Pursuant to section 208(a)(9) of the D.C. FOIA, provide in the space below or as an attachment, "[a] qualitative description or summary statement, and conclusions drawn from the data regarding compliance [with the provisions of the Act]."

The majority of FOIA requests to our agency during this period were for certification applications for local companies. Therefore, the majority of exemptions made were to withhold proprietary, financial, and personal information of the companies or executives associated with these application documents. Other FOIA requests included transcripts of public hearings and. financial information about a grant our agency managed.
