QUALITATIVE DESCRIPTION OR SUMMARY STATEMENT

Pursuant to section 208(a)(9) of the D.C. FOIA, provide in the space below or as an attachment, "[a] qualitative description or summary statement, and conclusions drawn from the data regarding compliance [with the provisions of the Act]."

The Office of Cable Television (OCT) fully complied with the DC FOIA statute in FY2007. OCT received one FOIA request from a representative of the news media. This request was received by the OCT FOIA officer on December 20, 2006 and granted in part and denied in part on January 29, 2007. OCT sought and received a 15 extension of time to process the request because it had to consult with other District government agencies to process the request (Office of the Chief Technology Officer, Office of the Attorney General, and the Office of Contracting and Procurement). This requestor asked that the fees associated with his FOIA request be waived. OCT granted this request for waiver of fees because it determined the information sought was in the public interest. This FOIA request was granted in part and denied in part because the requestor sought information exempt from disclosure pursuant to the deliberative process privilege and the attorney-client privilege. It was also denied in part because OCT did not possess some of the documents requested.
